

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION
AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT
George Mason University®

Get paid to make a difference

Help address the teacher shortage and earn college credit by virtually tutoring Virginia students in math and reading

- You'll enroll in a FREE 3-credit course in the Fall called "Teaching and Learning How to Learn"
- You'll do a FREE 1-credit practicum in the Spring
- All of these credits count as electives towards your degree
- You'll tutor a student (grades 3-8) online for 3 one-hour sessions per week and be paid $30/hr to do it
- This program is open to all undergraduate and graduate Mason students. Next cohort starts in Fall 2026.
